

WOHLSSEN

Wohlsen Construction Company Receives National Project of the Year Award

Wohlsen Construction Company received the Public Works Projects of the Year Award in the Historical Restoration/Preservation $10 - $100 million category from the American Public Works Association.

The Administrative Center for York County consisted of 133,000 square feet of adaptive reuse and historic rehabilitation as well as 3,000 square feet of new construction. The project was designed by NuTec Design Associations of York, Pa. The building was designed and constructed to be LEED Certified by the U.S. Green Building Council. Ed LeFevre of Manheim, Pa. served as project manager, with Charlie Ryan of Peach Bottom, Pa., and James Weiler of Newmanstown, Pa. serving as superintendents.

The American Public Works Association is an international educational and professional association of public agencies, private sector companies, and individuals dedicated to providing high quality public works goods and services.

Wohlsen Construction Company was founded in 1890 and is one of the leading merit shop construction firms in the Mid-Atlantic States, serving Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and New Jersey.

