

WOHLSSEN

GARY LANGMUIR NAMED RECIPIENT OF ETHICS AWARD

Wohlsen Construction Company is pleased to share the exciting news that Gary Langmuir, President and Chief Executive Officer, was named as the recipient of the 2008 Lancaster Samaritan Counseling Center's Ethics in Business Award.

The award was presented June 19, 2008, during a ceremony at the Lancaster Country Club featuring Dr. Tom Morris, author of "If Aristotle Ran General Motors," as keynote speaker.

Nominees were evaluated based on how they demonstrate five ethical principles of conduct: Integrity, Fairness & Justice, Stewardship, Life-Enhancing, and Transparency. The screening process was intense, and the award was not presented without a great deal of review into the background of each candidate

Three categories were recognized: For Profit Companies, Not-Profit Organizations, and Individuals. Gary won the Individual Category.

The employees of Wohlsen share their pride in working for a company whose leader demonstrates ethics and integrity. Gary was quoted at the banquet as saying, "without ethics, you have nothing."

Wohlsen Construction Company was founded in 1890 and is one of the leading merit shop construction firms in the Mid-Atlantic States, serving Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and New Jersey.

