WOHLSSEN EMPLOYEES RECEIVE CERTIFICATION

Twelve Wohlsen Construction Company employees have been certified by the American Society for Healthcare Engineering (ASHE), bringing Wohlsen's total to 25 employees receiving the certification.

The following employees obtained their Healthcare Construction Certification from ASHE: Superintendents Joe Aiello, Jerry Benner, Loren Koser, George Nissley,; Foremen Jim Campbell; Project Engineers Gordie Bennett, Andrew Coombs; Project Managers Steve Crandall, Brain Laub, Dave Marsden; Business Development Manager Tom O'Keefe and MEP Coordinator Charlie Ward.

ASHE is an organization of healthcare facility managers, contractors, architects, and engineers. The Healthcare Construction Certification program focuses on ensuring quality control within the construction process, assessing risk management issues, identifying challenges, and solving problems, and understanding the needs and expectations of owners as it applies to healthcare construction.

Wohlsen Construction Company was founded in 1890 and is one of the leading merit shop construction firms in the Mid-Atlantic States, serving Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, and New Jersey.
